

MRS. KATE C. M'DOUGAL.

APRIL 12, 1884.—Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. LAIRD, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany petition.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition to grant a pension to Mrs. Kate C. McDougal, widow of Charles J. McDougal, late commander, United States Navy, having considered the same, report :

That they find that this lady is now receiving $30 per month pension from the Government for herself and her three children of the pensionable age, and receiving the allowance provided by law. This, in the judgment of your committee, is all that in justice the Government is called on to do. They therefore report adversely to the prayer of the petition.

